

AUSTIN POETS INTERNATIONAL PRESENTS

Poet 16

Same Script

New car sleeps its battery dead
Netflix our new best friend
Celebrities fade are forgotten then
Miss my team they survive somehow
McDonald's delivers how sweet is that?
Washing the mail a dirty chore
Drawing fake smiles on cotton masks
Wash your hands baby shark do-doot do-do-do
Walk the hood this way today
Wear your sweatpants from yesterday
Hopscotch chalk the sidewalk cracks
Hello neighbor how your garden grows
Amazon boxing up our doorsteps
Do the jumble jigsaw Jenga too
Clean out the closet attic shed
Paint the bedroom the shelves the desk
Blow up the pool drink eight beers
Microwave leftovers drown with wine
Dad grows a beard Mom goes natural
Sister bites brother cat swats dog
Go watch TV shut up and play
Skip a shower who the hell cares?
Pay late rent cut the grass
Balance the budget deposit the dole
Shoot off your mouth talk to the wall
Don't touch me sleep alone
What have we got to lose?

Everyday news

Hugh Findlay